

OBITUARY.

On the evening of Nov. 15, 1901, the sun went down on the home of R. L. Rudd, of Tiago, Texas, and the inmates thereof clinging to the last faint hope that Alice, the now deceased companion might outwrestle that dread disease that had already placed its death seal on her; and yet recover to fill with joy the anxious hearts of loved ones who had so untiringly watched and waited day after day for some sign of recognition. But alas! despite all physical aid and loving hands could do, the morning of the 16th dawned only for us to learn that the last hope had faded. That grim monster, death, laid his icy hands on her and at 6:30 o'clock on the morning of the 16th she breathed her last.

She was born in Adair county, Ky., August 22, 1874; professed her faith in Christ in 1889, and in 1891 was united in matrimony with Mr. Rudd, six children being the result of their union, two of whom have gone just a little ahead of the mother, and stand beamingly on the land of Bulah. Then why should we weep for Alice? How could she stay here? It's true in her death her husband has lost a truly devoted wife, one who had been a helpmate indeed, and he will doubtless remember her timely counsel and ready help, and there will long be an aching void that seemingly the world can never fill. But bear it bravely, Bob, for we know from experience that the cross is not too heavy. Just think her spirit has only winged its flight and gone to its reward; and our stay behind is only transient. We know that home will be dark without her, but the time will come that you wouldn't call her back to this world of turmoil and trouble, even were it in your power; and that mother, who is careworn and grief-stricken, we would say look to a higher power for comfort; Jesus alone can help. Our sympathy is thine, but that won't heal the wounds. Truly your friend,

Mrs. Y. S. B.

The Negro in the North.

Bryan's Commoner: It was to have been expected that Northern papers would wax wroth and grow bitterly sarcastic in replying to Southern strictures upon the President for entertaining Booker T. Washington at dinner. But the Southern papers are replying by asking some pertinent facts. They point out the fact that Northern love for the negro is confined to election day. How many business offices in the North employ negro clerks? How many negro trainmen are employed on Northern railways? How many negroes have been appointed to postmasterhips in the North? How many Northern States have elected negro Senators or Congressmen? How many negro mechanics are employed in Northern mills and factories alongside white mechanics? North he is limited to the position of porter in hotels and restaurants. Is there a negro linotype operator on any great daily newspaper in the North that is so roundly denouncing the South for its attitude toward the Roosevelt-Washington dinner incident? Does any one of these Northern Republican newspapers employ a negro pressman, a negro reporter or a negro city editor? Some of these days the negro will realize that he has nothing to gain from the alleged friendship of men who seek to use him for political purposes only.

Asleep Amid Flames.

Breaking into a blazing home, some firemen little dragged the sleeping inmates from death. Fancied security, and death near. It's that way when you neglect coughs and colds. Don't do it. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption gives sure protection against throat and lung trouble. Keep it near and avoid suffering, death, and doctor bills. A teaspoonful stops a late cough, persistent use the most stubborn. Harmless and nice tasting, its guaranteed. Price 50c a bottle. Free trial bottles at T. E. Pauls and W. H. Wilkinson, Liberty.

James Labaree, a Kentucky mountaineer and civil war veteran, will walk from Kentucky to Washington to press a claim for a pension. He made the same journey, 600 miles, in twenty-three days last year, but failed to get his bill passed.

Lost.—between C. R. Royle's and Russell creek a grey plush cape. Finder will please return to C. R. Royle, was lost two or three weeks ago.

Paynter Dissents from Opinion.

Chief Justice Paynter filed a short but salted dissenting opinion in the Pratt-Breckinridge case, in which, after indorsing the other dissenting opinion by Judge Hobson, he says:

"This Court in 16 opinions has recognized that the Legislature had the constitutional authority to create boards of contest. Four of them arose under the constitution of 1850, and the balance under the present one. Nearly all of those which were delivered under the present constitution arose before there was any controversy over what was commonly called 'the Goebel election law.'"

"The majority opinion is not only in conflict with this long line of adjudications, but is disregarded of the interpretation which the Legislature and Executive of the State have given the constitution since 1850. Besides it disregards the plain letter of Section 153 of the constitution, which confers upon the General Assembly the power to provide by general law for the trial of contested elections."

"The opinion delivered in this case is an unfortunate one, and far reaching in its consequences and effect. It unsettles the law which has been settled in this State by numerous decisions ranging over a period of 50 years, and it is in disregard of the interpretations which every branch of the government has given the constitution for that period. It is revolutionary in character. It is such opinions as this that bring reproach upon courts."

Speak Well of Your Town.

It is not the size of a town, but its character that makes it a desirable place to live in. A live and prosperous town is a desirable one, and a town may live and prosper and yet be small. Every citizen in town should be interested in its prosperity.

One of the ways to help your town is to speak well of it. It is true patriotism to stand by your town and self interests as well. As a man who speaks ill of his family lowers both himself and his family in the estimation of others, so does a man who cares little for his own town and community seldom care much for his country. The man who is respected by others respects himself and his neighbors, and patriotism begins at home.

Another way to help your town is to do all you can to beautify it. Beautify your own property all you can, and then beautify the street. Be friendly to everybody and courteous to strangers. Your civility will help to make good impressions and will be carried away and cherished. Never forget that you are part of the town and that your deportment helps to make up the stranger's estimate of the place.

Sell all you can and buy all you can. If you have means invest it in something that will give employment to somebody. Always cheer on the man who goes in for improvement. Do not kick on a proposed improvement simply because it is not at your door. A town that is improving is also spreading out. If a rich man starts a project encourage him. If a poor man starts help him.

Don't be afraid to thrust your hand down in your pocket to help a public enterprise. More towns have been killed by such refusals than in any other way. The citizens of any prosperous town are always public-spirited and united. Stand together. Work together for the interest of the whole town. Always stand ready to do your best. Don't grumble and spend your time prophesying failure, but help to make every enterprise a success. Every man owes something to the community for his success, be it great or small. Be energetic, be enterprising, and your example will be followed.—Guthrie Graphic.

"About five years ago I was troubled with catarrh of the lower bowel," says C. T. Chisholm, 484 Dearborn Ave., Chicago, and although I consulted several eminent physicians who prescribed for me, I found their remedies failed to in any way relieve me, and the trouble almost became chronic. After suffering several months, I one day concluded to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I beg to assure you that I was most agreeably surprised to find after taking two doses of the remedy that I was completely relieved of the disease that had cost me so much trouble and annoyance. I am thankful to say that I have not suffered from it since." For sale by M. Cravens.

Believing that he had killed his wife in shooting at a fancied burglar, William D. Brockman committed suicide at his home in a Chicago suburb.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and never fails to cure." When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by M. Cravens.

Three trainmen were killed and several others injured in a head-on collision between two L. and N. freight trains at Hughes' Siding, Ala., seven miles from Birmingham.

Luck in Thirteen.

By sending 13 miles Wm. Spiorey, Walton Furnace, Va., got a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, that wholly cured a horrible fever sore on his leg. Nothing else could. Positively cures bruises, felons, ulcers, eruptions, boils, burns and piles. Only 25c. Guaranteed by T. E. Pauls, Columbia, W. H. Wilkinson, Liberty, Drugists.

J. E. Nobles, a traveling salesman for a Columbus, O., house, was found dead with the gas turned on his room in a hotel at Jacksonville, Fla.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy robust blacksmith of Tilden Ind., that for 10 years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Fifty c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at T. E. Pauls and W. H. Wilkinson, Liberty.

A Danville man, who is overrun with rats, and who has used all sorts of poison, traps, etc., to no purpose, advertises for one hundred cats, for which he agrees to pay ten cents each.

Startling, But True.

"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Life Pills is," writes D. A. Turner, Densport, Pa., "you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks use has made a new man of me." Infallible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c at Pauls and W. H. Wilkinson, Liberty.

At Vernon, Ill., two little children of Charles Bass were burned to death. Mrs. Bass was fatally burned in attempting to rescue the children.

Pneumonia Prevented.

Among the tens of thousands who have fared Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and la grippe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of la grippe to result in pneumonia." For sale by M. Cravens.

Miss Fannie Smythe will open school at Montpelier, the first Monday in January.

Cures Eczema. I tching Humors

Through the blood by taking Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.), which makes the blood pure and rich, heals every sore, scab, scale, boil or eruption, and stops the itching of eczema. B. B. B. cures especially the worst and most deep-seated cases. B. B. B. kills the humors in the blood. Druggists, $1. Describe trouble and trial bottle sent free by writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

At a dance near Irvine, Luther Brown, who was trying to quell a disturbance, was shot in the back and instantly killed.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by M. Cravens.

Charged with the heinous crime of criminally assaulting his fifteen year old niece, and being unwilling to face the trial, John P. Helpstein committed suicide at his home in Fleming county, by shooting himself through the heart with a load of buckshot. Helpstein was arrested and taken to Flemingsburg on a warrant issued by the girl, whose name is Miss Pet Hall.

Most in quantity. Best in Quality.

Morley's Sarsaparilla and Iron is a tonic, a blood purifier and a blood maker. It does not stop with merely curing certain diseases, like scrofula, sores, abscesses etc., but cleanses and builds up the whole system. All who have tried it say there is more cure in one bottle of Morley's Sarsaparilla and Iron than in six of any other kind. Sold by agent in every town.

While out hunting in Bell county, Martin Long, aged twenty-five years, accidentally killed his brother, John. Long was heart broken at the accident, and so fearful of meeting his mother that he left the country, telling some friends to say that he would never return. The accident occurred at Big Beach. The Longs are leading farmers of that section.

Coughs tell you that there is something wrong in the throat or lungs. It is the cause, not the cough, that you must look after. Morley's Honey Pectoral searches out the cause of trouble, it heals the inflamed surfaces, stops the irritation, loosens the cough and cures you thoroughly. Sold by agent in every town.

Wanted, to buy a good two or three year old horse; good saddle qualities. Address, Grider & Son, Esto, Ky.

Rich, Red Blood.

Morley's Sarsaparilla and Iron not only purifies the blood but makes new, rich, red blood. If you have skin eruptions, boils, abscesses, rheumatism or scrofula, or if you have a run-down, tired-out feeling, try this remedy and note the prompt results. Ask your druggist.

Courier-Journal and News, $1.50 a year.

Some cough remedies hide a cough they drug it into silence, but the irritation stays in the lungs to cause trouble. Morley's Honey Pectoral soothes, heals, strengthens and cures thoroughly. The cough stops because the cause is removed. Price 55 cents. Ask your druggist.

MOTHERHOOD

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI

123 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901.

In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theodore's Black-Drainage. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 31, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my house again. Mrs. J. W. C. SMITH.

Fifty Cents a Year Less Than a Penny a Number

THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY

Published at Atlanta, Ga.

After a career of more or less activity in the Southern field for over a quarter of a century The Sunny South has again become a weekly, better and more readable than at any time in its history. It contains serial stories from the best known authors the world over. It is devoted to Southern readers and Southern writers and is their own story paper. Short stories, sketches, incidents of war and of peace, anecdotes at home and abroad, poems, ideas, fashions, hints for home keepers, everything of interest to old and young will appear in its excellent weekly make-up.

The two great serials, "THEIRAM OF BURN," by ANTHONY HOPE (now in progress with full synopsis to cover former installments), and "KOSALYDE'S LOVER," by Maurice Thompson, to begin April 27th, will be read with absorbing interest throughout the whole South. This is your opportunity, and only 50 cents for a full year of it. Think of it! 50 cents.

Subscription price is only fifty cents a year. No agents' commission. The paper is its own best offer and argument to the subscriber. One sample copy free to you and to your six neighbors whose names and addresses you send on a postal card, provided you send at once. A club of five at 50 cents each, accompanied by the full amount $2.50 net to us, entitles the sender to The Sunny South a whole year free.

The Sunny South is your old friend in a new form, always improving, every issue to excel the last one. The South's literary paper is here at last. Order it today.

The Sunny South in combination with the greatest of all Southern Weekly Newspapers—The Atlanta Weekly Constitution—both for only $1.25 a year. Remit that amount to The Sunny South, and get these two great papers—One Literary; the other News.
